Cohen's Lottery &amp; Exchange Office.

HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, March 21, 1823.

Capital Prizes sold at Cohen's.

The STATE LOTTERY was completed yesterday, agreeably to advertisement. The distribution of the prizes excited great interest in the city, and long before the drawing began, the large Saloon in the Masonic Hall was crowded to excess with anxious spectators and adventurers. Our official list of the whole drawing, is published entire on the 3d and 4th pages of this day's Register. The Capital prize of TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, came up to No. 14106, and as usual, was sold at COHEN'S OFFICE, in a whole ticket. We also had the pleasure of selling the FIVE THOUSAND DOLLAR PRIZE, also in a whole ticket. It came out to No. 7377.

The two Ten Thousand Dollar prizes, fell to Nos. 4036, and 12053. As soon as permission is obtained, according to our established rule, we shall announce the names and residence of the fortunate owners of the Capitals, and also of the holders of the Thousand Dollar Prizes, of which we also sold a large proportion—in the mean time, we have again to congratulate ourselves in the continued distribution of good luck to our patrons, although many of them will, as a matter of course, be somewhat disappointed; to these, however, we have to offer our good wishes, and to solicit their attention in a continuation of investments in either of the brilliant schemes, published in a supplement which accompanies this day's Register. The attraction, particularly in the magnitude of the great capital of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS in the GRAND STATE LOTTERY, is not easily passed by, while patriotism will prompt an investment in that of the MONUMENT. The time for commencing the drawings, will soon be announced.

The Tickets and Shares in both schemes, are yet to be had at COHEN'S OFFICE, at the original prices. Purchases should not be delayed, and small prizes in the scheme which has just finished, ought immediately to be renewed. All orders will meet our usual prompt attention, addressed to

J. I. COHEN, Jr.—Baltimore.

The Fate of Tickets.

In this day's Register, will be noticed our official list of the 10th and last (yesterday's) drawing of the State Lottery. In this Lottery, the Prizes only, were drawn, in order to expedite the completion of the scheme—such numbers therefore, as are not to be found in any of the ten lists, which were regularly published in this paper, are consequently Blanks, as the Nos. of the prizes only, were printed. Should any of our customers not have received the whole of the lists, by informing us, and sending the Nos. of their tickets, we will examine them by the Commissioners' books, and will immediately forward information of their fate.

Prompt Payment of Prizes.

The CASH for all prizes drawn in the STATE LOTTERY, and sold at COHEN'S OFFICE, will be paid with our accustomed promptness—the holders are requested to present them as early as convenient. On this occasion, as heretofore, we must be permitted to remark the expedition of drawing, and the punctuality in the payment of prizes, which has always characterized the Baltimore Lotteries, and which has deservedly rendered them so popular, not only at home, but in every section of the Union.

For the very extensive and continued patronage we receive from every part of the United States, we beg leave to tender our best acknowledgments, and in return, we feel gratified in continuing to distribute from our office, the numerous prizes which appear from time to time in our lists.

Captain CHARLES MORRIS has been appointed by the President of the United States, with the consent of the Senate, to be one of the Commissioners of the Navy Board, vice captain PORTER, resigned.

Commodore Porter's Squadron.—By the arrival of the Brig Caroline, Captain Hubbs, in 17 days from Havana, at New-York, we learn that Commodore Porter and his squadron had arrived off Havana, and taken possession of Key West. The names of the vessels comprising the squadron, afford a curious collection of "flesh, fish and fowl." A Providence paper expresses the hope, that the Sea Gull will discover the Pirates afar off, the Ferret and Weazle drive them out of their retreats; the Decoy cheat them with a hope of plunder; the Greyhound, Terrier and Beagle, pursue them into the toils of the Fox; the Musquito, Sand Fly, Midge, Gnat and Gallinipper, sting them to desperation, and the Jackall and Wild Cat, tear them in pieces.

Highly Important.—WAR IN EUROPE.

The Packet Ship New-York, has arrived at New-York, from Liverpool, bringing regular supplies of London papers to the 30th January, and Liverpool to the 1st February, both inclusive.

The great question of peace or war has in effect been decided. France, backed by the allied powers, (Russia, Austria and Prussia,) has already prepared 100,000 men to march against Spain; they are to be commanded by the Duke d'Angouleme. The closing of the relations between Spain and the allied cabinets, exhibits a rudeness seldom witnessed in diplomatic affairs, more particularly the language of Spain, in reply to the Russian Minister. We have not room for the notes of the allied Ministers to the Cabinet at Madrid, but the replies of San Miguel, the Spanish Secretary of State, will serve to show the substance of a correspondence which has excited the high tone of the brief replies given to them by the Spanish Secretary—viz:

Answer to the note of the Count de Bulgara, the Russian Minister.

I have received the very insolent note which your Excellency transmitted to me yesterday, the 10th instant, and, limiting myself for my sole reply, to stating that you have shamefully abused (perhaps through ignorance) the law of nations, which is always respectable in the eyes of the Spanish Government, I transmit, by order of his Majesty, the passports you desire, hoping that your Excellency will be pleased to leave the capital with as little delay as possible. I am, &c. &c.

EVARISTO SAN MIGUEL.

MADRID, January 11.

Answer to the note of Count Brunetti, the Minister from Austria.

I have received the note which your Excellency was pleased to remit to me, dated yesterday, the 10th, and having now only to say that the Government of his Catholic Majesty is indifferent whether it maintains relations or not with the Court of Vienna, I send you, by Royal order, the passports which you have required. I am, &c.

EVARISTO SAN MIGUEL.

MADRID, January 11.

Answer to the note of the Minister from Prussia.

I have received the note which your Excellency transmitted to me under the date of the 10th, and contenting myself with stating in reply, that the wishes of the Government of His Most Catholic Majesty for the happiness of the Prussian States are not less ardent than those manifested by His Majesty the King of Prussia towards Spain, I transmit to your Excellency, by royal order, the passports for which you have applied.

(Dated January 11th, 1823, and signed with the usual formalities.)

EVARISTO SAN MIGUEL.

The answer given to the Russian Envoy, was taken in high dudgeon, and was returned—Count Bulgari remarking, "that respect to the forms and principles admitted and consecrated by all civilized nations, not only prevented a reply, but also from making its contents known to his Government, &c."

"Thus (says the Commercial Advertiser) the torch of war, which was for a time extinguished at Waterloo, has been re-lighted. How far it will spread—whether all Europe will be involved in the conflict—whether the storm will be confined to the Peninsula, or roll onward until the Seine, the Rhine, and the Danube are tinged with blood—or, whether the object of the Allies will be accomplished by a single blow—are questions which time alone can determine."

The next arrival from Europe, will no doubt bring the official declarations of war, and consequent accounts of hostile movements.

It was reported at Paris on the 28th, that the three Courts of Russia, Austria and Prussia, have addressed a joint note to the British Government, soliciting her to make a declaration of the principles and policy she intends to adopt in the war between France and Spain.

Miscellaneous Intelligence.

Great Fire at Canton.—The Ship Caledonia, Donaldson, arrived at Philadelphia on Tuesday last. She brought information of a dreadful fire which occurred at Canton, on the 7th of November last, by which upwards of TEN THOUSAND HOUSES WERE CONSUMED! The English factory, and most of the others, were destroyed. The American factory sustained little damage.

Earthquakes.—Accounts from Syria mention that in September last, severe and destructive earthquakes had occurred. Aleppo, Antioch, and five or six villages were totally destroyed—20,000 persons killed, and at least an equal number injured—the survivors without shelter, and almost without food, suffered dreadfully from ophthalmia and dysentery. Shocks continued to be felt from time to time.

Late advices from Syria give a deplorable account of the situation of the inhabitants who survived the first shocks of the Earthquake. In addition to the sufferings produced by hunger, disease, and exposure to the inclemency of the season, a horrid stench, arising from the number of dead bodies, had obliged them to leave the camp they had formed in the neighbourhood of the towns, abandoning all hope of any recovery of their property, and reluctantly forsaking their habitations, their homes, and the tombs of their ancestors.
